

(prep work: create 8 pieces of paper with numbers for participants to choose in the beginning; create 8 pieces of paper with 3 job options each for the remaining participant to choose in the end (exactly 8 not to raise suspicion too early))

"Welcome to life. You might be surprised, wondering why you're here. Don't be intimidated - you're not the first and not the last one.

Didn't ask to be born? Well, cope with it, that's what it's like to be a human.

Pick your number.

You're in the zone 0 right now, where everything and everyone begins.

Numbers 1, 3, 4, 7, 8 step forward and enter the new world of possibilities.

Numbers 2, 5, 6, I'm sorry, you didn't make it, lay down and rest.

The world you see has all the possibilities and knowledge you can imagine, and beyond! Will you get access to it? Depends. Turn to your left and follow the walls to zone 1.

While growing up, you'll explore the world by smell, touch, taste and much more. You'll learn to speak, your movements will change, as will your body. But not everyone will make it to this change.

Numbers 1 and 7, I'm sorry, you were born in a developing country and never got access to medicine you needed. Lay down and rest. Numbers 3, 4, 8 follow the walls to zone 2.

You'll grow and learn all possible things, rules, laws, social concepts that don't make sense. You'll learn to communicate with each other and by now you'll hopefully learn that violence is not the answer. Number 4, a missile hit your house while you were sleeping. You didn't make it. Lay down and rest.

Numbers 3 and 8, congratulations, you made it to adulthood. Move to zone 3 in the centre. It's time to get a job. Now you'll have to work to support yourself, set a family and work to support them, procreate and work. Choose a piece of paper to discover your options. Not you, number 3, with the support of your family you're free to choose what you want to do and how much time you want to invest. What's your choice number 8?

Welcome to life.

Exit for the next level."
